FLUVANNA COUNTY AND ITS PEOPLE

Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell,
M. A., D. D.

The Winn Family of Fluvanna.

The numerous Winns whose names adorn the Fluvanna records are all descendants of John Winn of Hanover, through three of his sons who acquired land in Fluvanna. These three sons were:

1. Hezekiah Winn.
2. John Winn, Jr.
3. Thomas Winn.

Their father, sometimes borne as Capt. John Winn, appears frequently in the records of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover. He died about 1798, interstate, leaving a considerable estate including property in Goochland county; widow Mary, probably nee Pledger, and several children, whose names are obtained from a paper drawn up and signed by Chief Justice John Marshall, concerning the distribution of the estate of the said John Winn. (That paper was long in the possession of the late Dr. John F. Winn, of Fluvanna and Richmond; it was lent to a relative who died before it has been returned, and has not since been recovered. I have personally seen it, and copied the names of the children. B. L. A.) Of the three sons represented in Fluvanna, the oldest was probably:

1. Hezekiah Winn. He married Christians Bowles, daughter of Thomas Bowles of Hanover county and they had the following children:

4. John Bowles Winn. He married his cousin No. 20, Frances Winn, and he youngest of their three children was born about 1820. In 1821, one J. B. Winn, of Virginia, on behalf of the Colonization Society sailed from Norfolk in the Brig "Nautilus" for Freetown, Africa, and died there (Master IV:567). The probability that it was this J. B. Winn is supported by the fact that within a year or two after this, his wife was a widow and residing in Albemarle, where she married again.

5. Minor Winn: lived in Fluvanna, married Elizabeth Gardner Anderson, daughter of Rev. George Anderson

6. Thomas Winn, Jr., (his uncle, No. 3. Thomas Winn being sr.) Before 1811 he removed to Kentucky, where he died in 1862. He married in 1811 in Woodford county Maria Bull Cooke daughter of John Cooke and his second wife Catherine Buron Mourse. Issue below.

2. John Winn jr. had before the formation of the county purchased 50 acres of land on Brevo Creek; he perhaps never resided there himself, as he died in Hanover county. He was born December 23, 1751; married July 8, 1773, Mary Bowles of Hanover. Fortunately an old Bible remains in which are recorded the names of their children, as follows:

7. Thomas Winn, born Apr. 20, 1774. He married first Anne Ellis, bond Henrico county dated December 17, 1796; mother Susanna Ellis gives consent. They removed to Barren county, Kentucky, and had eleven children. He married 2nd. January 14 1820, Elizabeth Depp, daughter of William and Elizabeth (Walker) Depp, of Kentucky, but originally of Virginia; and by this marriage had seven more children. He was for many years Clerk of Dover Baptist Church, of which he was an organizing member. He died in 1836. A partial list of his children will be given below.

8. Elizabeth Winn, born October 13, 1776, md. in 1796 Hardin Davis of Hanover county. They also removed to Kentucky, and had issue.

9. Mary Winn, born June 18, 1778, died March 22, 1844; married December 7, 1809, Twyman Wayt, a merchant of Charlottesville, Va., son of George and Catherine (Twyman) Wayt. They had issue.

10. Sarah Winn, born November 10, 1779, died young.

11. Lucy Winn, born April 29, 1781, married in 1801 John Jordan, of Fluvanna, son of Samuel Jordan and Frances Puryear. He was a man of many important business enterprises. He settled in Lexington, Va., where as Col. John Jordan he lived to an honoured old age. Issue below.

12. John Winn, born September 9, 1782, died November 13, 1837. He was a merchant of Charlottesville, and long Postmaster. He was treasurer of the first group of founders of the University of Virginia. He married Mary Johnson, daughter of Benjamin and Mary (Henley) Johnson: bond Henrico dated March 18, 1807. His wife was born June 3, 1789, and died September 30, 1857. Issue listed below. S. Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell

THE PAYNE FAMILY

From the earliest years of Goochland county, George Payne was a prominent citizen. As early as 1729 he was a justice of the peace, later becoming sheriff, and holding office in the military organization of the county. He married Mary Woodson, daughter of Robert Woodson, of Henrico county, and his wife, Elizabeth Ferris. From George Payne and Mary Woodson are descended most of the Paynes who resided early in Goochland and adjoining counties, and have since spread throughout the length and breadth of the United States.

Among their four sons was George Payne, Jr., who also held the office of sheriff of Goochland county. He married Judith Burton. They had several children, among them was

ROBERT BURTON PAYNE, the progenitor of most of the Paynes of Fluvanna. In 1784 he inherited from his father a large tract of land on Cunningham Creek in Fluvanna, which his father had purchased a short time before. He was born about 1751; married in Goochland, December 22, 1773, Margaret Sydenham Morton, born April 30, 1756, died May 23, 1840. She was daughter of Joseph Morton, of James City county; son of John Morton, of Westmoreland county, and wife, Mary Mountjoy (daughter of Alvin Mountjoy and his wife, Mary Lane). Joseph Morton married twice; his second wife, the mother of Robert Burton Payne's wife, was Margaret Beckwith, daughter of Sir Marmaduke Beckwith, of Richmond county, immigrant; he was a son of Sir Roger Beckwith, of Aldborough, Yorkshire, England, and his wife, Elizabeth Jennings, who was a sister of Edmund Jennings, famous in Virginia history. Sir Marmaduke Beckwith married Eliza Brockenbrough, daughter of William Brockenbrough, of Richmond county,

16. Eliza B. Payne, born and died in 1815.

4. Molly Jordan Payne and her second husband, Captain George Holman, had, with perhaps others:

a. Susan Brockenbrough Holman, married before December, 1837, John Frederick Miller, of Buckingham county, son of Thomas Miller and wife, Constance Massie (daughter of Colonel Nathaniel Massie and wife, Betsy Watkins). They had: (1) George Holman Miller, (2) Mary Miller, (3) Susan Miller. After her death J. Fred. Miller married (second) Louisa Guerrant and had other children.

b. Emily B. Holman, married Dr. William Armistead, of Goochland and Fluvanna counties; had, with perhaps others, (1) Emily Armistead, married in 1853 Carter Braxton Page, (2) Georgeianna Armistead, (3) Mary Elizabeth Armistead.

c. George Payne Holman, M. D., of Spring Garden, near Brevo Bluff, which plantation was deeded to him by his parents on December 30, 1837, by which time he was presumably of age. He married Martha Finch Scruggs, of Buckingham county, and had, with perhaps others, (1) Susan Brockenbrough Holman, married Captain Joseph M. Gardner, and had issue; (2) a daughter, who married a Mr. Myers and lived in West Virginia, among whose children was George Holman Myers, who married Eliza S. Ficklin, daughter of James Bruce Ficklin and wife, Augusta S. Pannill; (3) William Henry Holman, of Brevo Bluff, captain in C. S. A., and later judge of Fluvanna county court. He married (first) _____ Galt, and (second) Anne Harrison Galt, both being daughters of William Galt, of Fluvanna, and his wife, Mary Bell Taylor, of Richmond. By his second marriage he had several children. Mrs. Holman resides at the old Holman home at Brevo Bluff. Few men ever passed through life more beloved by his friends, or more universally respected, than Judge Holman.

5. Margaret Sydenham Payne and Richard Slater had several children, but the names of only two of them are known to me, viz.:

a. John Slater, married January 8, 1839, Frances Winn, daughter of Captain John Winn and wife, Lu-

Barclay Wills. They were the parents of Mr. William Sclater, long time clerk of Fluvanna, and others.

b. William Morton Sclater, married June 11, 1851, Maria Louisa Winn, sister of Frances, above, and had several children.

THE OMOHUNDRO FAMILY OF FLUVANNA COUNTY, VA.

(Dr. Ancell will be very glad if those of Omohundro descent will send him whatever material they can to be used in the preparation of a book on this family's history. He wants dates, full names, places of residence, etc. His address is: 20 Minghong Road, Shanghai, China. Letter postage, 5c.—Ed.)

Richard Omohundro settled in Fluvanna (then Albemarle) county before the Revolutionary War (v. D. B. 6:426, and other records). His large family was the presage of an almost innumerable progeny that has sprung from him; a progeny that has spread widely and has through a century and a half maintained certain well-marked characteristics, both physical and temperamental. They have been people of character, good citizens.

This first Richard of Fluvanna served as an ensign (a commissioned officer) in the Revolution, and was later sheriff of the county. His home was about a mile and a half north of Bremo Bluff, between the branches of the creek (called Spring Garden Creek) that enters James River a few hundred yards east of the Bremo station. His wife was Elizabeth Muse, and I have been told by one of her granddaughters that she was from Northumberland county, Va. Mr. Malvern H. Omohundro, who has been interested in tracing the family, thinks that Richard came from Westmoreland county, where there has been since very early Colonial times a line of Richard Omohundros, "of the forest of Nomini." By the middle of the eighteenth century a branch of that family had removed to Northumberland county, and I suggest that he also, as well as his wife, came from that county. This could probably be ascertained. Both Richard and his wife are buried at the old home place, but without tombstones. They had, with others who died young, the following-named nine children, whose order of birth, however, is not certain. For the sons, I follow approximately the order of their marriages.

1. John Omohundro. He settled in the northern part of Fluvanna, near Bybee's Cross Roads, and accumulated a considerable estate; as did indeed all the brothers. He married in Louisa county, February 26, 1795 (Louisa county records), Nancy Crank. Her parentage could no doubt be easily found in the Louisa records. His will is recorded in Fluvanna county, Will Book 5, page 124. A list of his children will be given below. He died May 28, 1845, and his wife survived till April 9, 1861.

2. William Muse Omohundro, born August 5, 1775, died November 22, 1846. He married February 20, 1799, Martha Creasy (all this from his family Bible). They resided for a time in Fluvanna county, and then removed to Ohio. List of children will be given below.

3. Richard Omohundro, married Edith Seay. He purchased and resided on the fine plantation known as Gale Hill, on the road about two miles west of Columbia, which was sold after the Civil War to a Mr. Siegfried. The burying ground there contains the graves of him, his wife, and a number of their children, and his tombstone shows that he was born April 5, 1777, died January 18, 1860. His wife was born January 6, 1777, and died August 14, 1856.

4. Thomas Washington Omohundro, who inherited the home place, and was prominent in the community, served as ensign in the Fluvanna militia, and in 1812 was promoted to be captain. He married May 24, 1806, Polly Cowell, daughter of William and Mildred (Henley) Cowell, of Albemarle and Fluvanna counties. (William Cowell's will—see Fluvanna Will Book 2:164, will dated 1812, mentions his daughter Polly, wife of Thomas W. Omohundro,) List of children below.

5. Allen Cocke Omohundro, married Miss Boatwright of Buckingham county, named by one of his nieces as Eliza Ann, but appears in a county record as Jane. They resided for some time in Buckingham, across the river from Scottsville. List of children below.

6. Ellis Putney Omohundro, of Amherst county, where his will, dated 1851, probated 1852, is recorded. He married Mary D. Turner, of Amherst. List of children below.

7. Mary Ellen Omohundro, born January 22, 1765 (see Woolling Bible), probably eldest child, married in Fluvanna on October 15, 1789, Joseph Woolling, only child of William Woolling. A deed describes him as "of Hanover county," and the vestry book of St. Paul's Parish shows that he (William Woolling) had land processional there in 1760. William Woolling married Elizabeth Stone, daughter of William Stone and his wife, Frances Taylor, daughter of James Taylor, of New Kent county, long clerk of St. Peter's Parish. Joseph Woolling and his family resided on Bremo Creek, in Fluvanna, about a mile and a half from James River. List of children given below.

8. Sarah Smith Omohundro, married March 18, 1795, David Louden. They lived in Fluvanna, where his will is of record. (Will Book 4/259.) List of children given below.

9. Omohundro, married Cary Jones, son of Rubin Jones and his wife, Elizabeth Wood. They lived in Fluvanna, near the Albemarle line. List of children given below.

FLUVANNA COUNTY AND ITS PEOPLE

Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell,
M. A., D. D.

The George Payne Family

GEORGE PAYNE II, of Goochland, though he never resided in Fluvanna, is included in these Notes for the reason that his name is in the records, a good deal of his very large landed estate being in this county.

He was born November 21, 1707, the second son of George Payne I, the progenitor, with his wife, Mary Woodson, of the Goochland group of Paynes that has spread so widely through the nation. He held, as did his father, the office of Sheriff of the county, and was vestryman or St. James Parish, Northam, for many years from 1748. He married Judith Burton; I have not yet learned the date. They had issue, as follows:

1. Jesse Payne, not named in his father's will, as he had died before his father. He died, wealthy, in October, 1770. His widow, nee Frances Morton, probably a sister of the wives of his brothers, George and Robert Burton, married on March 1, 1773, John Royal Reid (or Read), and by him also had children. Jesse Payne's children will be listed below.

2. George Payne, born February 9, 1716, died September 13, 1801 (tombstone). He was for many years clerk of Goochland county. His father devised to him 350 acres on Little Bird Creek, "where the said George formerly lived," and seven slaves; also "one-half of a tract of land the testator has in Fluvanna county, distinct from his main tract there, where testator's son, Robert Burton Payne, has built a house." (This secondary tract was on Cunningham Creek.) In some record he is called "Col." He married December 31, 1765, Betty McCrary Morton, for whose ancestry see the sketch of Robert Burton Payne, already published in these Notes. Issue below.

3. Mary Payne, married August 18, 1772, John Shelton, of Goochland. Her father's will gives to her six slaves and certain furniture that she already has.

3-a. Joseph Payne, born March 23, 1778 (D. R.). His father's will, 1784, devotes to "son Joseph the land in Goochland County, 977 acres, where testator now lives, with 16 slaves, and all the stock, horses, cattle, etc. Also the remainder of the land in Fluvanna county in the fork of James River; and if he should die without issue, said land to be equally divided among testator's other children." No reference to the marriage of this Joseph Payne has been found.

One Joseph Payne served as Lieutenant in the Revolutionary War, and in 1783 sold his "officer's right to 1,000 acres of land; and in 1787 Joseph Payne was made captain in the Goochland militia. This Revolutionary officer was living as late as 1820, but was probably not the son of George and Judith, for he gives the date of his birth as August 20, 1759, making him seventeen months younger than the Joseph above. One Joseph M. Payne in 1791, along with John Shelton (who married Mary Payne, above) and Joseph Shelton, witnessed a will in Goochland.

4. Elizabeth Payne, born September 19, 1760, married June 9, 1777 her cousin, Samuel Woodson. Her father's will gives to her six slaves, and confirms previous gifts of cattle and other property. Issue below.

5. Anne Payne, married Sackville King, son of Thomas and Sarah King, who were originally of Hanover county, but had removed to Louisa, where he died in 1798. Her father's will gives to her five slaves, and confirms a deed of gift to her husband, Sackville King, for 300 acres of land on Cary Creek in Fluvanna, "where they now live."

This Sackville King has already been mentioned among the Revolutionary soldiers from Fluvanna. After the war they lived for nearly twenty years in the county, and then removed to Campbell, where he died about 1839, very old. His will, dated August 11, 1838, is of record. Issue, in part, named below.

5-a. Robert Burton Payne, of whom a sketch has already been given.

6. (Probably) Matthew Payne, who married May 4, 1773, Sally Pryor, daughter of Captain William Pryor and wife, Sarah Wood.

1. Jesse Payne and Frances Morton had, with perhaps others:

7. George Morton Payne, born June 28, 1768. I am informed that he married a Miss Johnson and removed to Fayette county, Ky.

8. Richard Baylor Payne, born September 10, 1769. No further record.

9. Jesse Burton Payne, born June 27, 1771. (Note: One Jesse Payne, but not certainly this one, married Jean Morgan; bond Albemarle county, June 13, 1795.)

2. Col. George Payne and Betty McCrary Morton had:

10. Margaret B. Payne, married her cousin, John Smith Payne. Of him and his family a sketch will be given later.

11. Judith Burton Payne, born

September, 1769, died October 29, 1850, married Kendall Lee, bond Goochland December 5, 1788; they resided at "Lehigh," in Columbia. He was son of Kendall Lee, of Lancaster county, and wife, Betty Heale. Her will, dated 1849, is of record in Fluvanna. Issue named below.

12. Mary Barnes Payne, born August 27, 1772, married John Chichester ter Payne, of whom a sketch will be given later.

13. Jonathan S. Payne, married first Sarah Pryor, daughter of William Pryor, bond Goochland, February 1, 1806, and, second, Jane Mitchell, bond Goochland, May 21, 1818. He was living as late as 1860, in Louisa county, and had then four daughters, and at least one son, George Alvin Payne.

14. Lucy Hubbard Payne, born May 14, 1777. No further record.

14-c. Matthew Mountjoy Payne, born January 17, 1784, served nearly forty years in the United States Army; served in Mexican War and was wounded at Palo Alto. He died in 1862. His will, dated 1860, is of extraordinary interest, naming as he does a very large number of his nieces and grandnieces, among whom he divided his large wealth; practically nothing to male relatives. His principal heirs were his two great-nieces, Laura M. Pope and Elizabeth H. Pope. How they were so related to him I do not know, beyond the fact that either their mother or their grandmother was Lavinia Beckwith Payne.

15. (Probably) Elizabeth Payne, who married Robert Payne, son of Col. John Payne, of "White Hall," and his second wife, Mrs. Jean (Smith) Chichester. Of Robert Payne a sketch will be given later.

4. Elizabeth Payne and Samuel Woodson had (see his will, Goochland):

16. Sally Pleasant Woodson, married June 7, 1798, Warner Lewis, and had issue, named in "The Lewis & Kindred Families."

17. Robert Hughes Woodson, died in 1806, leaving two daughters, Deborah and Mary, who apparently never married, as they are named in 1844 as Woodson. She married, second, on February 21, 1815, William F. Carter, by whom apparently no children.

17-a. George Tucker Woodson, no record of marriage. His will, dated 1840, leaves all his property of whatever description to his nephew, Archibald B. Lewis.

18. Samuel Woodson, of whom no further information.

19. Judith Payne Woodson, married December 17, 1812, Robert Pleasant, of Powhatan county, son of Samuel and Elizabeth Pleasant. In 1831, he sold her dower rights in Fine Creek Mills. Issue below.

20. Fielding Woodson. No further record.

21. Elizabeth Woodson, married June 5, 1818 (she under age), Archibald B. Lewis, and had issue.

5. Anne Payne and Sackville King had in 1782 five or six children. Of their names, only the following have been obtained for this record:

22. Duncan King, to whom in 1816 his parents, both then living, made a deed of gift.

23. Ann (Nancy) King, married James Layne. They removed to Montgomery county and had, with perhaps others, a daughter, Mary Ann R. Layne, who was sole legatee under the will of her grandfather, Sackville King. At that time, 1838, she was under age, her guardian being John Teass (?); so her father had evidently died, and perhaps her mother also.

One Sackville King was sheriff of Campbell county in 1836, but whether it was this man, or perhaps a son of the same name, I do not know.

11. Judith Burton Payne and Kendall Lee had:

25. George Kendall Lee, removed to New Orleans. No further knowledge.

25-a. Eliza K. Lee, never married, living as late as 1860.

26. Thomas Lee, died in Kentucky before 1849.

20. Charles Fleming Payne, born January 8, 1768. He married Polly Adams, daughter of Thomas Adams, bond Goochland January 12, 1788.

21. Elizabeth Chichester Payne, born November 20, 1769; said to have married 1st a Mr. Blackmore, and 2nd Mai. Henry Bradford.

Josias Payne and his 2nd wife Mary Barnett are said to have had:

22. Ann Payne, married January 22, 1803, Gideon Pillow; they were parents of Gen. Gideon J. Pillow, C. S. A., and others. But if this Ann Payne was really the daughter of Josias and his second wife, then she was married when she was hardly yet twelve years of age. I think this record is a part of the confusion that exists about the Josias Payne of Goochland and he of Nashville: a confusion mentioned above.

4. John Payne and Mary Coles had

23. John Coles Payne. A record in the Va. Historical Magazine states that he married a Miss Wilcox of Canada and removed to Kentucky and died there leaving a daughter, Ann Payne. But the Will of Pres. Madison shows that his "brother-in-law John C. Payne" was in 1835 living in Orange County, Va.

24. Dorothea ("Dolly") Payne, "second child", born May 20, 1768, married 1st, in Philadelphia, Jan. 7, 1790, John Todd, of that city. He died in 1793, and she md. 2nd in 1791 James Madison, later President of the United States. Her record as hostess at the White House is a part of the social history of the nation. She had two sons by first marriage but neither of them married.

25. Lucy Payne, married first in 1792 Major George Steptoe Washington, son of Samuel Washington, a brother of Gen. George Washington. They resided in Jefferson County Virginia (now West Va.). She married 2nd in 1812 Hon. Thomas Todd of Kentucky (his second wife). He was born in King and Queen County, Va., January 23, 1763, son of R'chard Todd and wife Elizabeth Richards. Judge Todd had a distinguished career in the legal profession. He died in Frankfort February 7, 1826, on the very day that he had been appointed an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

26. Mary Payne, married in 1801 Hon. John G. Jackson, of Clarksburg, Va., (now West Va.), an eminent lawyer, and a member of the Committee appointed in 1818 by the legislature to draft plans for the University of Virginia.

27. Anne Payne, married in 1804 Hon. Richard Cutts, M. C., from Maine; their grand-daughter was author of the Life of Dolly Madison and it was from another granddaughter that I obtained much of the information about the family of John Payne.

28. William Temple Payne, probably eldest son, as he seems to have been of age by 1791 (cf. W. & M. Quarterly 22:171). He accompanied his father to Philadelphia, and was still living there in 1842. No record of marriage.

29. Isaac Payne, died unmarried.

30. Walter Payne, mentioned in several places. I have found no record of his marriage.

5. Robert Payne and Ann Burton had:

31. Charles Payne,

32. Robert Payne,

33. John Payne,

34. Elizabeth Payne, born March 31, 1763, married a Mr. Saunders.

35. Keturah Payne, born February 2, 1765.

36. Ann Payne, born November 13, 1766, married a Mr. Harrison.

37. Mary Woodson Payne,

38. Agnes Payne, born about 1775 married 1st February 2, 1795, Robert Tarris, in Pittsylvania County. He lived in a very short time, and she married 2nd, Judge Marmaduke Williams, of North Carolina, son of Nashaniel Williams and wife Mary Ann Williamson. I have record of three of their children.

6. Agnes Payne and William
Mitchell had, with perhaps others,

39. Mary Mitchell, married 21 July 1769, Archibald Bryce. They had six daughters and two sons, of whom I have a list.

7. Susanna Payne and Capt. William Heale had; with perhaps others

40. Sarah Heale, born July 11, 1772

41. John Heale, born January 1
1775.

42. William Payne Heale, born
1777 in Loudoun County, Va., married in 1810 Eleanor Harrison, daughter of Matthew Harrison and his 4th wif.
Eleanor Tyler. He died at Point
Pleasant, West Va., leaving four sons and one daughter (V. M., 24:309).

Fluvanna County And Its People

Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell, M.
A., D. D.—Another Branch of
the Payne Family

William Payne, son of Josias Payne, "the elder," and his wife, Ann Fleming, was born February 10, 1732, Old Style, so was just one day older than General Washington. As another distinction, he was the uncle of "Dolly" Madison, and was first cousin to Robert Burton Payne, with whom my previous Payne sketch began. He died March 2, 1812. His father, who had removed from Goochland to Pittsylvania County, devised to him, with other property, a tract of 400 acres in Fluvanna, on which he took up his residence and became prominent in the community and rather wealthy. He married twice (so family records). First, on March 6, 1755, Mary Barrett, born January 15, 1737, and second, about 1766, Susanna Thompson, daughter of George Thompson and granddaughter of Joseph Thompson, the first sheriff of Albemarle County, of whom a sketch has already been given. From three different sources have come to information about his children, and the list as worked out runs as follows: By his first wife:

1. Ann Payne, born September 18, 1759, married 12th February, 1795, James Richardson. Issue list below:

2. Sarah Payne, born September 18, 1760, married 9th June, 1796, Meriwether Smith, son of William Smith, of Louisa County (who was son of Thomas Ballard Smith, of Louisa, and wife Ann Meriwether). They removed before 1803 to Tennessee. Issue named below:

3. James Payne, born April 2, 1762, died March 20, 1835. He was an officer in the War of 1812, and later Colonel of the Fluvanna Militia. He represented his county in the Legislature for several years. He married October 3, 1784, Frances Dix, daughter of John and Kerenhappuch Dix, of Pittsylvania County. Issue named below:

By his second wife, Susanna Thompson, he is said to have had:

4. Susanna Payne, born January 24, 1768, married before May, 1796, Thomas Norris Clark, an immigrant from Scotland. They removed to Kingston, Tennessee, where he engaged in mercantile business. He became one of the prominent men of the State, an intimate friend of Andrew Jackson; had a large farm and many slaves. Issue named below:

5. A daughter, name illegible, born December 19, 1772.

6. Elizabeth Payne, born November 9, 1775, married in Fluvanna February 21, 1799, George Richardson. Issue named below:

7. Barrett Goodloe Payne, born December 23, 1778, died in 1853; represented Fluvanna in the State Legislature and was called "Colonel." He married March 24, 1808, Lucy Richardson, who died 18 November, 1821, aged 43, leaving four children (so her obituary notice). One of his children was William B. Payne, who once represented Fluvanna in the Legislature, but I have not been able to learn the names of the others.

8. William Payne, born March 18, 1782. (One William Payne married in Fluvanna November 2, 1819, Maria C. Allegree, who may have been this William).

The foregoing list of William Payne's children has been compiled from several sources, but I suspect it to have errors. First, I think the date of birth of the daughter Sarah (Sally) to be inaccurate. Also, I think he had a son William, older than the one dated as born in March, 1782; in fact, this 1782 William may have been a grandson. In 1790, the first William of this sketch was mentioned as William Payne, Sr., which term would hardly have been applied if the "junior" was only eight years old. This could all probably be determined from county records.

Grandchildren of William Payne:

1. Ann Payne and James Richardson had (family Bible for dates of birth):

a. Polly Barrett Richardson, born December 7, 1797, married Samuel Morris, an inn keeper, near Union Mills, Fluvanna County.

b. Sallie Richardson, born May 5, 1800, married T. James Jones and they lived near Union Mills.

c. Granville Payne Richardson, born October 1, 1803, married Lucy Flannagan, daughter of William and Sally Curd Johnson Flannagan.

d. Churchill Gibson Richardson, born November 12, 1805, married Lucy Dawson, of Albemarle County. Among their children was a son, Allen B. Richardson, "of near Kent's Store."

e. Virginia Richardson, born September 29, 1808, never married.

f. Susan C. Richardson, born April 2, 1810, married Alfred Hamilton Chiles.

2. Sarah (Sally) Payne and Meriwether Smith had:

i. Thomas Jefferson Smith, born September 5, 1809.

- c. William Payne, born October 26, 1803, died in Fluvanna May 9, 1892, married October 25, 1827, Ann Flannagan, daughter of William Flannagan and Sally Curd Johnson. They had fourteen children, to be listed later.

Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell,
M. A., D. D.

THE GEORGE ANDERSON FAMILY

The George Anderson of this sketch had settled in Albemarle before the formation of Fluvanna, and his residence was a mile or so southwest of Bethel Church, where Mr. Joseph Underhill lives now. The record of his purchase was among those destroyed in Albemarle in 1781, so the county of his original residence is not found recorded. But there are at least two lines of evidence to indicate that he was from Louisa county. He married before 1750 Frances Woodson, daughter of Benjamin Woodson (will 1777) and his wife, Frances, born Napier, daughter of Captain Robert Napier and his wife, Mary Perrin. (Captain Robert Napier was a son of the immigrant, Dr. Patrick Napier, and his wife, Elizabeth Booth, daughter of Robert Booth, clerk of York county, and member of the House of Burgesses. Mary Perrin was daughter of Richard Perrin, of Henrico county, and his wife, Katherine Royall, daughter of Joseph Royall and wife, Katherine Banks.)

The records of the settlement of George Anderson's estate begin in 1806; though there are allusions to "legacies," I was unable to find a copy of any will. Of his children, the records show seven, as follows:

1. George Anderson, Jr., who became a Baptist minister. He resided in Fluvanna; married March 23, 1769, Susan Mims, daughter of David Mims (or Mimms), of Goochland. She survived him. His will, dated November, 1810, was probated December, 1811. List of children below.

2. Benjamin Anderson: First lieutenant in the Revolution, and probably held some county office, as he is called "gent" in the records. He married (first) Judith Mimms, sister of his brother's wife; bond Goochland dated January 26, 1769. He married (second) Sarah Johnson, daughter of David Johnson, of Louisa county; bond Louisa, dated November 3, 1773. I give below a list of his children by his first wife. The Louisa records might show those by his second wife, as he lived later in life in Louisa.

3. Nathaniel Anderson, married Mary Mayo, daughter of James and Martha (Williamson) Mayo; bond Fluvanna, November 13, 1783. I am told that they early left the county, and where they lived is not now known.

4. Frances Anderson, married one John Duncan. In 1806 they received their share of her father's estate. I would like to have information about their children.

5. Susanna Anderson, born September 22, 1758. No further record.

6. Elizabeth Dabney Anderson, born July 4, 1760 or 1761 (not clear), married Thomas Winn, bond dated June 6, 1780, accompanied by a letter of consent from her father. They have many descendants, who will appear in a sketch of the Winn family that will follow later.

7. Molly Anderson, married Joseph Bunch, probably of Louisa county. In 1791 Joseph and Mary W. Bunch sell 391 acres of land in Fluvanna, and they probably left the county. Information about their children is desired.

1. Rev. George Anderson (see above) and his wife, Susan Mimms, had:

8. George Anderson, of Fluvanna, married (first) Joanna Garrett, bond dated February 17, 1799; married (second) March 1, 1831, Ann Smith. Issue by both, listed below.

9. Benjamin Anderson, married (first) in 1801 Susanna Clements, and (second) in 1810, Elizabeth, daughter of Cuthbert Champion. Issue below.

10. Agnes Anderson, married William North. No children.

11. Elizabeth G. Anderson, married before 1810 Minor Winn.

12. Mary Anderson, married John Bryant; no children.

13. Sallie Anderson, perhaps eldest child, was born before 1773. She married John Daniel Woody, bond Fluvanna, November 14, 1798. He died in 1822. No record of their children.

14. Judith Anderson, born 1775, died June 18, 1862, married January 12, 1795, Captain Richard Beckwith Payne, of Fluvanna, son of Robert Burton Payne, of Goochland, and wife, Mary Sydenham Morton. The children of this couple will appear in a sketch of the Payne family.

2. Benjamin Anderson, above, and his first wife, Judith Mimms, had:

15. Betsy Anderson, married Joseph Johnson, bond Goochland, May 17, 1787.

Some Notes by Rev. B. L. Ancell,
M. A., D. D.

THE HACKNEY FAMILY OF FLUVANNA

William Hackney, probably from Middlesex county, was in Spotsylvania by 1725. He had at least two sons, viz.: Stephen Hackney, no record of marriage, and John Hackney, of Spotsylvania, well-to-do, but late in life became much involved financially. His wife was named Jean. They removed to Fluvanna, where his will, 1797, is of record. It names:

Wife Jean.

Son Thomas Hackney. See below.
Son Richard Hackney. See below.
Son Robert Hackney; living in 1797, no further record.

Daughter Frances Johnson. See below.

Daughter Jean Allen; granddaughter Frances Allen.

Granddaughter Nancy Hackney; grandson Benjamin Hackney (see below); grandson Duvall Hackney; granddaughter Betsy Woodruff; grandson John Johnson.

Thomas Hackney, son of William above, lived in Spotsylvania county. He married before 1775 Sarah Woodruff, daughter of David and Rachel Woodruff. They were both living in 1786; she had probably died before 1794, as he makes deed alone. No record of issue.

She died before 1806; he married in 1819 Mrs. Anne Norris, widow of Thomas Norris, of Cumberland county. His children will be named ow.

a. John Johnson, called "Maj." in his obituary, was born 1777, died April 9, 1819, leaving a wife and four children, one of whom was Francis Johnson, called Captain. He lived on Brevo Creek; was a justice of the peace. He married Elizabeth _____, and died March 17, 1838, leaving wife and three children, as follows:

(1) Francis L. Johnson, born 1834; married October 13, 1863, Harriet Tanner Ayres, of Buckingham county, who was born in 1840. Had issue.

(2) Jedediah Johnson, lived on Brevo Creek; married and left several children.

(3) Kate Johnson, never married.

One Benjamin Hackney, believed to be the one named as grandson by William Hackney, above, died in Fluvanna in 1823, wealthy. He married August 7, 1799, Frances Banks, daughter of Ralph Banks and wife Martha Venable; they had a daughter, Frances Venable Hackney, who married January 10, 1828, Reuben E. Bullock. And one Frances Hackney, who was, I think, the widow of Benjamin, married in 1827 John Anthony. (Ralph Banks, above, was born June 1, 1759, son of William Banks and wife, Elizabeth Martin, who were married September 15, 1753.)

WILLIAM BUGG'S FAMILY

William Bugg, resident in Fluvanna in 1782 with a family of seven whites and two blacks, made will dated October 13, 1796, pr. February 1, 1798. In his will are mentioned the following:

Wife Susanna. (She is twice referred to as "my living wife," so was probably not his first wife.)

Son Sherwood Bugg. (He in 1777 witnessed a will, so was presumably of age; was still resident in Fluvanna in 1815.)

Daughter Elizabeth W. Creasy. (She had a son, William Woodson Creasy, who married July 27, 1796, Elizabeth Thomas, daughter of John.)

Daughter Susanna Shores, and her daughters, Alley and Lucy. (She was wife of Thomas Shores. The daughter Alley married April 28, 1802, Daniel Stone, and Lucy married Richard Perkins.)

Son William C. Bugg, and his daughter Ann A. Bugg. (Records show that Wm. C. Bugg had a daughter, Nancy P. Bugg, who married December 20, 1802, William Kidd.)

Daughter Ann Pettice (Pettus), and her daughter Rebecca. (Ann Bugg married John Pettus, August 4, 1795; probably his second wife, as he had a daughter married in 1802.)

Son Woodson Bugg. (He married Rebecca Henley; bond January 14, 1785.)

Daughter Mary A. Starkes, and her daughter Nancy Starke.

Daughter Martha W. Hendley, and her son William Hendley. (Martha Woodson Bugg married January 11, 1792, Thomas O. Henley.)

Daughter Sarah A. Bugg. (Sarah Allen Bugg married March 22, 1798, Joshua Jones.)

Witnesses to above will: John Napier, Reuben Herndon, Jane S. Napier, Charlotte Napier and Dolley Napier.

In a sketch of the Shores family, recently printed, the marriage of Susanna Bugg to Thomas Shores, the elder, was suggested. It appears from the above that she was the wife of the Thomas Shores who died in 1841, and that she had died and he married a second wife, Elizabeth, who survived him. The marriage records at Palmyra might be examined for this second marriage.

OTHER BUGG ITEMS

Samuel S. Bugs of Fluvanna and wife, Delilah, had a son, Wilson N. Bugg, born 1835, married in Richmond June 14, 1859, Virginia A. Allen. I desire information about this Samuel Bugg and his children.

One Samuel Bugg, living in 1750, had, with perhaps others:

Son, Samuel Bugg.

Son, John Bugg, died in Cumberland County, 1750, where he had a plantation of 393 acres. He left a wife, Susanna, and four sons, John, Benjamin, Jesse, and Sherwood. How were they related to the Fluvanna Buggs?

Benjamin Seay married shortly before or after 1825 Polly Bugg. Who were her parents?
